

Job title : Manufacturing Engineer

Date of hire : 01/04/2021

Place of work : Lannion

Type of contract : Full-time permanent position

Job description : You will join the manufacturing department and carry out various missions such as improving testing resources, monitoring supply and planning deliveries.

- You will be in charge of the evolution of the various software used by the test and shipping department (Inventory generation / Tracking traceability)
- You will be heavily involved in the maintenance and operational development of the integration platform test tools and particularly those that must be developed for OTN
- You will also be involved in the supervision of tasks in SAP (Writing of reports / validations of customer orders / support for external collaborators in the service)
- You will be responsible for the end-of-year inventory
- You will participate in the integration of orders for new OTN products.

Skills

Education

- Engineer

Main knowledge and skills

- Knowledge of the environment of products which are in operation at customers' premises and particularly of Telecom (DWDM / OTN) / Datacom (Ethernet / Fiber Channel) Standards and Protocols
- IT development (python / Visual basic / C)
- FPGA development (VHDL)
- Optics
- Fluent English

Experience

- A first experience in a company is strongly recommended

Additional abilities

- Team spirit
- Autonomous in his work
- Respect for quality of the products delivered to our customers

Contact : hr@ekinops.com

www.ekinops.com